

Retail design consultancy Four IV has created two boutiques for upmarket Russian menswear brand St James. Interiors for the boutiques in Moscow and Ekaterinburg, opening at the end of this month, feature textured limestone flooring and perforated leather finishes. Other design features include VIP fitting rooms, a barrisol light and a cash desk that sits within a specially designed cube of smoked glass.